MIDNIGHT SESSION GRAND ARMY HAS ON SCARLET FEVER ANNUAL BANQUET

Disease Found in Institution and Boys Quickly Vacate Dormitories Fearing Quarantine. Two Cases are Isolated.

Using the appearance of scarlet fever as an excuse for all the excitement that can be stirred up by 300 college boys between midnight and dawn, the students at the local institution called a mass meeting at one o'clock this morning, resolved to quit the place, and then left by automobile and on foot for surrounding towns intending to go on to their homes. That is, some of them did—estimated by the college authorities to have been about twenty five in number. The rest stayed here, are attending classes, and preparing to welcome the fugitives upon their return.

Local physicians late Wednesday evening diagnosed as scarlet fever the illness of Simpson and Hagedorn, two freshmen who roomed in the Old Dormitory and had been mingling freely with the other students. They roomed on different floors but had both boarded at the same place, the Imperial Club in the McCahey building, Carlisle street. Their removal from the dormitories was ordered and they were taken to the Observatory building on Prep Campus. A trained nurse was secured from Harrisburg and she is taking care of them, together with the physicians in charge.

Their rooms were thoroughly fumigated at an early hour this morning and then locked. The room-mate of one of the patients was at the Prep building on Wednesday and the two rooms he visited were both fumigated this morning, while the classes were suspended for the day. At college the work is going on without interruption.

Persons who remember the small pox scare of 1905 say that the scenes on the college campus early this morning were exactly similar to the performance of ten years ago. Fearing that they would be quarantined in the buildings, the boys sought refuge in their fraternity houses or else came into town, and hired automobiles to take them away. About thirty got out of town in this way, the majority of them going to Harrisburg and paying large rates for the service. Some of them regretted their action and returned on the morning trains.

Those in touch with things at the school regard the attitude of the students largely as an excuse for a little excitement and believe that in a day or two things will be back to normal conditions. The local Board of Health is securing from the college authorities a list of all those who are missing and will notify the health boards in their home towns to keep them under observation in the event of their arrival.

Veterans of the Civil War Sit down to Elaborate Dinner Served by Ladies Auxiliary. National Colors for Decorations.

Around tables bountifully laden with an elaborate feast of all the things that a dinner of Thanksgiving season should include, the members of Corporal Skelly Post 9, Grand Army of the Republic, gathered to-day in their annual banquet. The dinner was served in the Post Room by the Ladies of the G. A. R.

The menu included stewed oysters, roast turkey, pork, sour kraut, mashed potatoes, cranberries, celery, ice cream, cake, coffee and all the other things to be expected in such a dinner. It was excellently prepared and daintily served by the women of the auxiliary.

On each table there were several clusters of small American flags and the usual red, white, and blue bunting added color to the decorations. Two long tables were arranged for the veterans and almost all of the eighty five members were present. The feast followed an informal reunion in the main room of the building.

The veterans took part in this with little talks, the famous poem of James A. Scott, written immediately after the battle, and ever since regarded as strangely prophetic, and all the discussions which are so dear to the heart of a soldier of Civil War days.

All in all it was a happy occasion and one which will be long remembered by all who were fortunate enough to take part in it.

CHINAMEN IN FIGHT

Early Morning Fracas at Hop Lee's Carlisle Street Laundry.

So Ho Dan Hon, young son of Hop Lee, attacked another Chinaman in his father's laundry shop on Carlisle street, about three o'clock this morning, got his man on the floor and was about to beat him with a shovel when Officers Emmons and Smiley arrived on the scene and placed him under arrest. Dan Hon screamed lustily on his way to the jail and the disturbance aroused a number of Baltimore street residents. It is said that the young Chinaman, whose mind was unbalanced about a year ago, through threats received from New York, believed the fellow whom he assaulted Wednesday night was sent to spy upon him. The mission of the visiting Chinaman is entirely a peaceable one as he is contemplating the purchase of Hop Lee's laundry.

READY FOR OPENING

Deer Hunters Go into Camp on November 29.

The members of the Sport hunting club will go into camp for deer hunting, November 29, at Rattlesnake run. Last year this club had more than the usual hard luck. It was not able to locate a deer. It expects to break all records this year. The members of the Rouzerville hunt club will go into camp, about November 29, at Cold Spring, several miles east of the White Pine sanatorium.

The deer season is drawing near and many of the hunters, for big game only, are getting ready for the two weeks in the forest. Some people from the mountains claim that they saw several herds of deer, this fall, running through the brush, which indicates a good season for the local sportsmen.

PLAN TO REOPEN BERLIN RAILROAD

Committee of Residents' Appear before Public Service Commission Regarding Grade Crossing Question. Their Future Plans.

A delegation of citizens of East Berlin and Abbottstown and members of the board of directors of the East Berlin and Abbottstown Railroad company, the proposed corporation to take over and operate the old East Berlin Branch railroad, appeared Wednesday before the Public Service Commission, at Harrisburg, in a hearing on the question of whether the company will be permitted to operate the road at grade with all public roads which it crosses.

The commission has been asked to grant this right to the road, and the argument Wednesday was presented by J. L. Williams, Esq. Owing to there being several members of the commission absent, a decision was not reached.

Failure to secure this permission, it is said, will result in the abandonment of all attempts to re-establish steam railway communication to East Berlin borough, as the expenses of tunneling and bridging the roads would be so great that the organizers of the new company would not attempt to undertake it.

With this permission obtained prospects for rebuilding that portion of the road that was torn up and resuming operations would appear to be bright. Already $25,000 has been subscribed toward the project. Only about $5,000 and the charter need to be secured before active preparations for resumption would begin. Of the amount subscribed more than $1,500 was secured in the city of York. The total amount subscribed thus far has been by 209 citizens, showing widespread interest in the restoration of the road.

One of the arguments advanced in favor of granting the request that the road be permitted to cross public roads at grade is that it is merely a restoration of the physical condition prevailing before Mr. Leas abandoned its operation, and that the old road operated for a period of 39 years under those conditions without a grade crossing accident.

The delegation, which went to Harrisburg, was composed of C. C. Spangler, U. L. Glatfelter, Aaron Seachrist, Ezra Brown, P. C. Smith, C. E. Brandt, Benton Myers, N. W. Fell, William Baker, Harry March, Dr. T. C. Miller, Samuel Sowers, Isaac Miller, Rev. Samuel Miller, Willis Spangler and Frank Altland.

AUTOMOBILE BURNED

Owner Escapes by Jumping as Car Goes down Hill.

While descending the small hill at Greenmount Wednesday evening the Grant runabout of Edward Schriver, of near Biglerville, caught fire from the engine back firing and was destroyed. Mr. Schriver jumped from the machine and was badly bruised. The car ran against a bank at the side of the road where the flames extended to the gasoline tank which exploded. Earlier in the evening Mr. Schriver had trouble with the car and ran into a tree, badly denting the front of the little machine. He came into Gettysburg in one of the taxicabs after the second accident.

Forty One Teachers Enter the Contest

First Day Sees Remarkable Interest and Gettysburg Times Offer is Principal Subject of Conversation.

Talk of The Times' plan for the public schools was the chief topic among the teachers last evening and to-day. The county's most progressive teachers were the ones who showed the greatest enthusiasm. An example of the way the idea is received is expressed in the words of one of the older teachers, who said, "This will be the greatest benefit to the county schools as a whole since the introduction of free text books and the teacher who fails to take advantage of the offer will be neglecting an opportunity of the kind that seldom comes."

When you consider that there is nothing to lose, this is correct. There will be more than one organ and many sets of reference books in the schools before Christmas that both pupils and teachers have wanted for a long time. A few teachers thought their districts were so well covered with the paper that there would be little chance of getting more subscribers but when it was explained to them that each pupil or each pupil's family would know of at least one other family who did not get the paper, they saw how twenty five pupils should mean twenty five new subscribers.

One boy about twelve years old, whose parents are subscribers for The Times, said, "We get the paper but I know three people living near us that I think I can get. We need a new dictionary pretty badly, and I hope the teacher will let us go into this." We did not tell him that his teacher had already expressed a willingness to have the pupils work for the school for he will learn of it Monday morning. If there are just about three other active young boys or girls in that school there will be a new dictionary on the shelf within a few weeks, and other new things as well.

The success of the plan for the schools which go into it depends upon the spirit the teacher shows. If the pupils are imbued with the idea of really working and their effort is directed by the teacher they will earn a sum that will be a surprise to themselves. Let each one secure the names of every one in his or her section that does not get the paper. After this list is completed, assign a certain number for every pupil to interview. If they cannot get the year's payment have them try for six months, or even three months. The families that will not take a three months subscription are few and far between, especially when they know for what purpose the money is to be used.

Of course, in the outlying districts the weekly, the Adams County News, will be preferred to The Times. Because the subscription price is only

SOUND ADVICE GIVEN TEACHERS

Practical Talks to Young Men and Women are Continued by Instructors Engaged for the Week. Final Entertainment.

"It is a terrible thing when a teacher loses the respect of the pupils," Dr. Corson told the Institute this morning, "and those who have in charge the training of our boys and girls should realize not only their opportunity but their responsibility. It is to the great credit of the rank and file of the public school teachers of this country that it is such an uncommon thing for one of them to fall morally and bring disgrace upon his or her profession."

"Our lives speak far more eloquently than our words and our habits in personal cleanliness and behavior will wield a great influence for good or evil. I do not wonder that the teacher who appears before his school day after day with his nails in mourning casts a pall over the entire room. I do not see how the teacher who never has his shoes polished can ask his pupils to be neat in their appearance."

Dr. Corson went on to discuss the dignity of work and quoted the oft-repeated statement of the late Booker T. Washington, who said it was one of the greatest blessings God ever gave to man. Dr. Corson's lectures throughout the week have been of an exceedingly practical nature.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of Prof. P. M. Harbold, principal of the Millersville State Normal School, his place on the program to-day was taken by Dr. G. W. Hull, of the same institution.

The American Male Quartet will give the final entertainment this evening. They come highly recommended and will doubtless please a large audience.

Cross, provided he continues in the employ of the Vir Publishing Company, and when his connections terminate by death or otherwise, then the one tenth portion is to go to the children of Mrs. Cash.

Another one fifth is to be paid to Miss Clara Bold, and another one fifth to his daughter, Mrs. Cash. This trust shall continue for twenty years, unless all three trustees agree to discontinue it, in which event his children, Mrs. Cash and Roy Stall, are to inherit the fund equally. RUSS DRIVE RELIEVES RIGA

German Forces Driven Back
Twenty-Five Miles.

OVINSK ALSO IS SAFE

Muscovites Bombard Mitau and Capture Town Nearby—The Czar Visits His Soldiers.

Petrograd, Nov. 18.—The spirited Russian tactics on the Riga front have reversed the situation in the last few days, the Germans now being on the defensive and retreating. A week ago, they were within five miles of Riga, they are now twenty-five miles away.

A reliable authority stated that Russian air scouts ascertained the Germans are beginning the active evacuation of Mitau, which for some weeks has been a secure base for them. Mitau is being bombarded by Russian artillery, and Kemmeren has been captured by the czar's troops.

It is believed the Russians are determined to continue the thrust until they capture Mitau, so that the Russian winter lines may be fortified west of there, thus effectively safeguarding Riga from annoyance. Dvinsk appears to be safe and its occupation by the Germans is thought to be far from likely.

Czar Nicholas has been making an interesting tour of inspection during the last three or four days. First, he journeyed from headquarters to Revel, where he pinned medals on the breasts of a British submarine crew. He descended the ladder of this submarine, after a demonstration of the conning tower machinery, and investigated the interior, examining the torpedo tubes, the equilibrium apparatus and the engine room.

Then he went to Riga, where he was received by the Bulgarian general, Radko Dimitrieff, who, at the outbreak of the Bulgaro-Russian war, denounced his nationality and decided to remain with the Russian army and become a Russian citizen. He is now governor of the Riga district. After inspecting the troops the czar went to Vitebsk, one of the most congested refugee towns, where he inspected more troops. He was greeted everywhere with enthusiasm, and even the peasants conveyed to him expressions of fervent loyalty.

Though within gunshot of Teheran, the Russian army is not likely to approach nearer or to enter the city. It is probable a section of the troops will remain by the Persian government to stabilize government authority in the provinces, and prevent the instigation of trouble by Turkish and German agents who are accused of paying brigands to attack consuls, residents and travelers.

The people of the Persian capital have exhibited considerable alarm, but Russian reassurances and the shah's decision to remain in the city, have encouraged the Persian residents who are known to entertain Russophile sentiments.

Warns Russians People

Petrograd, Nov. 17.—The war correspondent of the Novoe Vremya warns the Russian people against jubilation over recent successes on the eastern front and says they still are confronted by a strong enemy whose superb technical equipment is far from being crushed.

"The enemy assigns a maxim gun to every ten men," the correspondent says, "and his artillery is abundantly supplied with ammunition."

BLAMES ANCONA CREW

Austria Denies Shots Were Fired After Vessel Stopped.
Washington, Nov. 18.—An official communication from Austria-Hungary forwarded to Secretary Lansing by American Ambassador Penfield, denies categorically that any shots were fired at the Italian liner Ancona after she came to a stop, or that the Austrian submarine which torpedoed her, shelled her lifeboats, as has been charged.

Ambassador Penfield's despatch evidently crossed Secretary Lansing's instructions of Tuesday, directing him to ask the Vienna foreign office for information.

Another Italian Steamship Torpedoed
Syracuse, Italy, Nov. 18.—Torpedoed by a submarine in the Mediterranean, the Italian steamship Bormida has been sunk, it was announced. All the passengers were saved. No information as to the fate of the crew has been received, but it is expected the sailors have all been rescued.

London, Nov. 18.—Official announcement was made that Premier Asquith and Mr. Edward Grey, David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, and A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty, have arrived in Paris for consultation with the French government.

12,000 Arabs Join British

HOSPITAL SHIP SUNK BY MINE; 85 DROWN

British Vessel Sent to Bottom
by Explosive.

London, Nov. 18.—The British hospital ship Anglia was sunk by a mine in the English channel. Three hundred men were saved out of a total of 385.

The statement issued by the official press bureau gave news of the disaster. It said there were thirteen wounded officers and 372 men on board.

The war office report follows: "The hospital ship Anglia struck a mine in the channel and sank. There were on board at the time about thirteen officers and 372 men making a total of 385. Of this number, about 300 were saved by a patrol boat."

"A vessel that was proceeding to the rescue of those on the Anglia struck a mine and also sank."

The Anglia was a merchantman which was taken over by the British admiralty after the war began, and refitted as a hospital ship. She was commissioned in August, 1914.

READING MAN SHOT

Killed by Reinholds Resident Who Found Him in Outbuilding.
Reading, Pa., Nov. 18.—Paul Wolf, residing at Reinholds station, twelve miles west of this city, shot and killed Harry J. Stout, fifty-one years old of Reading.

Stout was seen around Reinholds all Tuesday and spent the night at a hotel. In the morning he wandered into an outbuilding at Wolf's home while in an irresponsible condition. Wolf heard him, and getting a shot gun, went to investigate. Upon opening the door of the outbuilding, it is alleged, Stout said he had come to kill Wolf. Armed with a hatchet and club he advanced upon Wolf, it is said, and to protect himself, Wolf fired.

FOUR GIRLS BURNED

Sparks From Sewing Machine Set Fire to Powder in Arsenal.
Dover, N. J., Nov. 18.—Sparks from a broken needle in a sewing machine set fire to the powder in the United States arsenal at Picatinny, five miles from here, and resulted in a panic among women workers and the serious burning of four girls.

The fire occurred in a building where bags are made and filled with powder. Elizabeth Davenport and Theodora Sprackel were taken to hospitals in a critical condition. Mabel Tavers and Bridget Ryan were seriously burned. A fire brigade extinguished the flames.

Teutons Count on Rumania
Bucharest, Nov. 18.—Former Premier Carp is credited by the news paper Adeverul with the statement that Rumania will take up arms on the side of Germany in December. The prediction is made by M. Carp that as soon as established communications make it possible Germany will make an ultimatum requiring a reply within forty-eight hours.

3100 Return to Work; 2600 More Strike
Tamaqua, Pa., Nov. 18.—The thirty-one hundred employees of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, who had been on strike at four collieries several days, returned to work. Soon afterward 2600 men struck at the company's Spring Tunnel, Nesquehoning and No. 10 colliery because several men had been suspended.

Turn Down Grenade Orders
Pittsburgh, Nov. 18.—Agents of the French government have been trying for several days to place an order here for 9,000,000 hand grenades, but it was said by steel men that they have met with little success. Manufacturers did not care to experiment with grenade making at this time.

KITCHENER DRAWS KAISER TO SERBIA

Emperor Anxious to Offset His Influence in Balkans.

SERB PLIGHT IS DESPERATE

Fate of Defending Army May Only be Matter of Hours—Von Mackensen Sent to Gallipoli.

London, Nov. 18.—Emperor William, according to reports from Amsterdam, scenting grave peril in Lord Kitchener's presence in the Balkans, has left the east front and is hurrying to the Balkan theatre of war, where, as a result of his preemptory orders, the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians, reinforced by Turks, have begun a great effort to crush the Serbians and destroy the Franco-British forces before the latter's numbers are augmented by the troops landing daily at Salonika.

The Kaiser's presence in the Balkans is designed to offset the influence exerted by Lord Kitchener in Athens and Bucharest, and it is said that his program is to establish a supreme war council in Constantinople, where he will direct operations. The Palace hotel at Paris is being made ready for the general staff.

It is reported that Field Marshal von Mackensen has been placed in command of the Turkish and German forces at the Dardanelles, and has already gone to Gallipoli.

The fate of the Serbian army, it appeared, may be only a matter of hours. Monastir, in southwest Serbia, is reported to be in such a perilous position that the consular officials have departed from the city. From the various conflicting reports which have reached the public the following apparently may be deduced as facts:

The Bulgarians have taken Krusevo and are six miles west of Philip. Thus the southern Serbian army and its Franco-British allies are confronted with the imminent peril of an outflanking movement.

Tetovo is in the hands of the Bulgarians. The fate of the Serbians holding Babuna pass is more obscure. One report states that the pass has been forced. It seems certain that the defenders are at least threatened so seriously that their position soon may be untenable.

With Krusevo and Babuna in the hands of the invaders, the fate of Philip would be sealed and the road to Monastir opened.

Berlin's official report says: "The pursuit in the mountains made further satisfactory progress. The Serbians were unable to delay our advance to any appreciable extent. More than 2000 prisoners, one machine gun and one cannon remained in our hands."

APPEALS COAL TRUST SUIT

Assigns Fourteen Errors to Supreme Court Against Dismissal of Action.

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—The United States, through Assistant Attorney General Todd, took an appeal to the United States supreme court from the decision of Judge McPherson, dismissing the government's suit against the Reading company and its allied companies, which were alleged to have formed the "hard coal trust."

In a final decree filed October 28, dismissing the suit in conformity with an opinion previously rendered by Judge McPherson, and with Judges Bullington and Hughes concurring, however, that the Central Railroad company of New Jersey give up its interests in the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company.

Fourteen errors are assigned in the petition for the appeal.

ALLENTOWN STORE BURNED

Two Women Rescued With Ladders From Upper Apartments.
Allentown, Pa., Nov. 18.—Fire said to have started among some flimsy stores the large music store of G. C. Aschbach, 539 Hamilton street.

The firemen were hampered for a time by lack of water.

Two women living in apartments on the third floor of the building were rescued with ladders and thousands crowded the streets. A stock of musical instruments for the holiday trade was damaged by fire and water, and the loss may reach $50,000.

Little Defective Perishes in Chicago Hospital.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Bollinger baby, a defective mite whose mother on professional advice decided it should not undergo an operation which probably would have saved its life, died at the German-American hospital.

Mrs. Anna Bollinger, the mother, remained in her bed near the doomed baby.

She was steadfast in her belief that death was best for the little one. She has three healthy children and the plight of the condemned one is believed to have been due to an attack of typhoid fever which the mother suffered recently.

"It is not heartless of me," Mrs. Bollinger said. "I love the little deformed one as I love my three other healthy children. But the doctor told me, it would be, perhaps, an imbecile a criminal. Left to itself, it has no chance to live. I consented to let nature take its course."

"No one need think me an unnatural mother. This baby, if allowed to live, would be a burden to itself. Its life would be barren, useless. It is one of nature's blunders. I am willing nature should correct its error by my baby's death. I am satisfied I am doing right."

The principal physical deformities of the baby are the closure of the intestinal tract, paralysis of the nerves of the right side of the face, the absence of the right ear, blindness of one eye and malformation of its shoulders. Dr. Haiselden, who officiated at the birth, noted the absence of a neck. The brain is found to be only slightly subnormal, but the cranial nerves were absent or undeveloped.

WILSON'S BIG TURKEY

President's Thanksgiving Bird a Portly Kentucky Gobbler.

Washington, Nov. 18.—President Wilson's Thanksgiving turkey will be a big bronze gobbler, being "pointed" on the Kentucky farm of South Trimble, clerk of the house. Chestnuts and celery are the special diet of the presidential fowl.

Mr. Trimble had word that it would probably reach twenty-four pounds and would be expressed here alive. He has supplied the White House turkey for three years.

Gives Mrs. Galt Blanket

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 18.—Vice President Thomas R. Marshall's wedding gift to Mrs. Norman Galt, President Wilson's fiancée, is a gorgeous Navaho Indian chief's blanket, made at the reservation in northeastern Arizona. The gift has been sent east.

"FOOD OF THE GODS" IN OHIO LABORATORY.

E. M. Black, the Hero of an H. O. Wells Story, From Columbus.

Ellis M. Black, a youngster in the scientific world, who has been working in the laboratories of the Ohio State university, asserted the other day that he has discovered a hitherto unknown substance, found in practically all human and animal foods, by which the growth and development of animals can be controlled.

Administered to young animals, Black says his mysterious food may cause them to grow twice or three times as fast as a normally fed animal. Deprived of it altogether, the animal dies. Deformed and stunted animals, he says, if they receive it in varying doses, reach their full growth, although their period of youthful growth may have elapsed long before. Mr. Black, who is not yet twenty-four, has already received two degrees from the university and is now working for the degree of doctor of philosophy. He has hopes that his new discovery will lengthen human life; that if fed to backward babies it will cause them to mature normally. But he will not promise or predict.

For seven months Mr. Black and his assistants, under direction of Dr. Ernest Scott and Dr. J. F. Lyman, professors of physiological chemistry at the Ohio State university, have experimented with their "elixir" on human subjects, mostly babies. Black says these experiments have produced "some favorable results, which cannot be announced yet."

"Scientists always have held that all foods are made up of five well known substances—water, fats, carbohydrates, proteins and minerals," Mr. Black explains. "Our discovery is the sixth component—the unknown component of animal and human foods. It is the one necessary substance for life to animals in their food. A rabbit fed with any combination of the ordinary food elements minus our product will die in three weeks. This elixir element of foods is stored in the various organs of animals and probably of human beings, so that even deprived of it for a time they are able to live. It is worth noting that animals which eat their foods raw have a longer span of adult life in comparison to their period of youth and growth than humans."

Gerard Needs New Shoes.

England may be asked to lift that blockade a bit, as Ambassador Gerard in Berlin needs new shoes and can't get them in Berlin.

Everybody knows the plan will be an expensive one for The Times. The matter of its cost was seriously considered before the announcement was made. The prize money alone is worth working for but, win or not, each school will have its commission as a certainty.

DR. E. T. JEFFERS

President of York Collegiate Institute Passes Away at Midnight.

Rev. Dr. E. T. Jeffers, president of the York Collegiate Institute, died at his residence, in York, this morning at 12:30 o'clock. Dr. Jeffers was 74 years old, and had been in failing health since the first of last September. It was only about one week ago that his condition became alarming, and since that time he failed rapidly until the end came this morning. Death followed a state of coma. He was born in Nova Scotia, April 4, 1841, being 74 years old at his death.

Dr. Jeffers was a graduate from Jefferson College, Canonsburg, 1862; from the Princeton Theological seminary, in 1865, and became pastor of the United Presbyterian church at Oxford, the same year, where he served until 1872. During this year he accepted the presidency of Westminster college, at New Wilmington, where he remained until 1883, when he went to the chair of professor of theology at Lincoln university, which post he held until 1890. It was at this time that he returned to the pastorate at Oil City, from which place he went to the York Collegiate Institute three years later. Dr. Jeffers, in his earlier life, was a more or less frequent visitor to Gettysburg.

SPILLED ASHES

Forest Academy Student Burned in the Laboratory.

First aid was promptly administered and a physician was summoned from Waynesboro. Mr. Brenneman is resting comfortably. The burn was not serious enough to necessitate his removal to the hospital.

STALL WILL HAS MANY BEQUESTS

persons named in the will institute legal proceedings to modify or change any of its provisions, they are to be cut off with one dollar. Mr. Pohlman, Miss Bold and Mr. Cross are named as executors.

Dr. Jacobs' Will

A high moral standard is demanded of the heirs of Dr. William C. Jacobs, late of Philadelphia and well known here, in his will, which disposes of an estate of $32,500. The estate is to be held in trust for the education of his son and the maintenance of his widow, Sallie Jacobs. Scholarships for public school teachers are to be established at the expiration of the trust fund.

One of the clauses of the will instructs the executors, his widow and the Girard Trust Company, that

"If at any future time the trustees of my estate shall obtain convincing evidence that any heir has incurred liabilities in excess of his or her assets (the income from my estate in no way to be regarded as an asset), or has been convicted in any court of law of any crime or felony, or has been so extravagant or wasteful in his or her expenditures as to convince the trustees of my estate of his or her unfitness to manage his or her own affairs, the executors shall collect the income and pay only an amount for comfortable support and maintenance of the heir and his or her family."

NEIGHBORS MET AS FOES.

Canadian Saw His Old Friend Bayonetted In a German Trench.

Two Winnipeg residents met in death grips recently in a German trench in Flanders. This is the narrative drawn from the survivor, who has returned to North Winnipeg, discharged owing to wounds received at Ypres.

The Englishman, departing in August, 1914, for Valenciennes, took farewell of many friends, including a German, who had for several years been his next door neighbor. They had been exceptionally good friends.

One night in Flanders came the order to take the German trenches. The Winnipeg man, leaving the German parapet, fell on a foe. Both lost rifles and grappled in the pitch darkness. Finally the narrator got the death grip on his foe's throat. A star shell showed the face of that of the German who had said goodbye to him in Winnipeg. "Then my comrade bayoneted him, and dawn confirmed my suspicion that my former friend I was dead."

"I am sure he recognized me," said the survivor, "but how did he get there?"

MAY MAKE ARRESTS

No Delay in Future in Taking Action against Battlefield Offenders.

An opinion handed down by Attorney General Gregory states that it is within the power of all the employees of the Gettysburg National Park to make arrests for infraction of Park rules. This will obviate the necessity of having such arrests made by a United States marshal as was formerly done, and the action may be accomplished as soon as the offense is discovered.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY MARCHES

Archbishop Reviews Thousands in Philadelphia.

ONE HUNDRED BANDS IN LINE

Two Divisions Form the Procession, One Going North, the Other South on Broad Street.

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—Surrounded by scores of priests and by about two hundred laymen and women in a stand at the Roman Catholic High school, at Broad and Vine streets, last night, Archbishop Prendergast, Bishop McCort and Bishop Shanahan, rector of the Catholic University of America, at Washington, reviewed a parade of members of the Holy Name societies of eighty-five Roman Catholic churches of this city and fifteen churches of nearby towns and cities.

One grand division of the marching army of men pledged to hold sacred the name of the Deity started from Broad and Snyder avenue at 8.21 o'clock. It contained members of fifty-one churches, including those from outside the city. The other grand division left Broad and Diamond streets nine minutes later.

One hundred bands furnished the music for the marching hosts.

Along the line of march stood thousands of spectators, who applauded the marchers. On Broad street for three blocks on either side of the reviewing stand more than twenty-five thousand men, women and children were massed behind the ropes which the police had stretched along the curbing.

The ranks of the marchers were bright with color at numerous intervals. Among the uniformed contingents was a delegation of students of La Salle college, which marched with one of the subdivisions that formed at Broad and Diamond streets.

As the Holy Name men passed the reviewing stand on which sat the archbishop, who in the morning had celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, they raised their hats, and there were many loud outbursts of acclaim for the venerable jubilarian. To each of these salutations he responded with a grave bow.

Grand Marshal Michael F. Haughey and his aides, Captain William A. Ryan, chief of staff, and Major Edward A. Daly, assistant chief of staff, kept the long line of marching men moving without a hitch.

In the neighborhood of the reviewing stand many of the business places were gaily decorated and a number of them were illuminated. Their windows were filled with spectators, who felt fortunate at being able to look over the heads of the crowds massed on the sidewalks.

MEDIATORS AT WILKES-BARRE

Business Interests Back Attempt to End Car Strike.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 18.—James A. Steese and Patrick Gildea, mediators for the state bureau of labor, arrived here and are zealously trying to bring to an end the strike of the four hundred motormen and conductors of the lines of the Wilkes-Barre Railway company.

These mediators are backed by the business interests of the city, who in vited them to try to restore peace.

Mediator Steese said that he expected speedy developments.

Company officials declare there can be no peace which will involve concessions on the part of the company. It is asserted that the situation has reached the stage now where it must be a fight to a definite finish.

Strike leaders declare there can be no peace on a plan which does not bring them a flat wage rate instead of the sliding scale, arranged by a board of arbitration, which the men say was a change made contrary to the terms of submission.

Newbern Railroad Shops Burn

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 18.—Fire destroyed the Norfolk Southern railroad shops. The loss is placed at $200,000. At one time the entire northern end of the city and the Union station and freight warehouses were threatened. The plant covered almost a city block.

Burkitt to Apologize

Kinnelka, Ill., Nov. 18.—George Burkitt is sorry that he talked about President Wilson's marriage and will write the president an apology when ever he gets time, said Charles Burkitt, brother of the assistant postmaster. The postmaster is keeping Burkitt very busy.

Bulgarian Coast Bombed

Paris, Nov. 18.—A news agency despatch from Bucharest states that a Russian fleet consisting of three superdreadnoughts and thirteen other warships are bombarding the Bulgarian Black sea coast.

An Early Discovery

MARRIED HER ON "DARE"

Reading Woman Says Husband Would Not Recognize Her as Bride.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 18.—The story of a young wife's dream of a happy home and freetime of her own, shattered by the realization that her husband merely had married her on a "dare," and never intended to acknowledge her as his wife, was told before a divorce master here by Mrs. Ida Michaels, of this city, seeking legal separation from Albert Michaels, of Philadelphia.

According to the wife, the wedding took place in Elkton, Md., December 12, 1914, but they never lived together, her husband returning to his parents' home in Philadelphia, sending his bride back to Reading, promising to provide a home for her within a month. When she asked that he make good his promise, the husband wrote that he never intended to live with Mrs. Michaels, that he only had married her on a dare and that she would not be welcome in Philadelphia. The master recommends a divorce.

2 MORE SUSPECTED IN FAY SHIP PLOT

Government May Ask Indictment Against Others.

New York, Nov. 18.—The indictment of two more Germans as accomplices of Robert Fay in a plot to blow up ships carrying munitions and food-stuffs to the allies, and the indictment of Fay and his six other alleged accomplices on five or six extra counts will be the next move of the government in its efforts to crush Teutonic propagandists in this country.

This was determined on after United States District Attorney H. Snowden Marshall held a conference with Assistant District Attorneys Knox and Wood. Mr. Wood, in an interview preceding the conference, declared that the government had evidence tending to show that vast sums of money used by the Teutonic agents in this country were distributed by a high German diplomatic agent.

A. Bruce Bielaski, chief of the investigators of the department of justice, held a conference with Dr. Joseph Gorikar, former Austro-Hungarian consul, who recently made a series of charges against German and Austrian diplomats and consuls in this country. Later, they met William J. Flynn, chief of the secret service, who has charge of the neutrality investigation.

Ball Player Shot while Gunning

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 18.—James Shaw, a pitcher of the Washington club, of the American League, was probably fatally injured while gunning in Westmoreland county. Shaw and a companion were making their way through a wood when Shaw's gun was accidentally discharged as he climbed over a fence. The charge entered his neck.

Minister Dies at Coronation

Kito, Nov. 18.—Francisco Herbozo, Chilean minister to Japan, dropped dead while attending the coronation ceremonies. He attended a concert during the evening, where all was gaiety, and died shortly after his return to his hotel. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

HOW TO BE STRONG AND FAT

The trouble with most thin people who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern science is called Tonoline and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Tonoline aims through its regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 30 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Tonoline is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Tonoline costs only $1.00 for a 15 days' treatment.

CROSS AND NERVOUS

Gettysburg Sufferers from Kidney Troubles Often Become Very Irritable.

Cross irritable people—the sort who fuss and moan and worry over trifles—are not always to blame for the annoyance they give to others. Frequently these traits are but the effects of kidney poisons on brain and nerves. Uric acid that escapes the kidneys, irritates nerve centers and vital organs—is likely to cause back-ache, rheumatic and neuralgic pains—keep you languid, all tired out, or lead to Bright's disease, gravel or dropsy. Stop the trouble in the beginning. Doan's Kidney Pills are recommended by your friends and neighbors in Gettysburg.

Mrs. N. L. Wierman, 135 York St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I suffered a great deal from backache and I often had nervous spells. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I procured a supply at the People's Drug Store and commenced their use. The backache was relieved and my entire system was benefited. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and advise other kidney sufferers to give them a trial."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wierman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo N. Y.

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-21

Easy Way To Make
Hair Attractive

Ladies May Add to their Appearance

with Little Trouble.

Ladies who find trouble in properly or attractively arranging and dressing their hair should try using a Little Parisian Sage twice daily for a while and note the remarkable improvement.

Parisian Sage, which can be obtained from The People's Drug Store or any drug counter, makes the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and wavy. Takes out the dull lifeless appearance, dissolves the dandruff and stimulates the hair roots into healthy normal action. Instead of merely sprinkling the hair, it should be rubbed right into the scalp with the finger tips. Parisian Sage is a delightful treatment for both hair and scalp, cannot possibly injure the hair and is very inexpensive.
